As the restrictions for COVID-19 start to let up, many Ontario residents are itching to get outside and travel. As the province reels from 3 months of social distancing rules, the welcome transition into a new stage brings reopening of closed businesses and the green light for residents to get outside and explore.

As you plan your upcoming vacations, we call upon you to consider visiting and supporting Ontario attractions. These businesses – small, large, and many privately owned – are vital to Ontario’s tourism and are a big part of what makes up the diversity and intrigue of our province.

Did you know?

- Tourism is responsible for $26.2 Billion in Visitor Spending
- 4.3% contribution to GDP and is responsible for 188,000 businesses and 391,000 employees in Ontario.
- Largest employer of young people – 23% of workforce aged 15-24

It is no secret that tourism matters; and during these unprecedented times, our attractions suffered from the loss of business. They need your support and patronage to help restore them.

This summer you will no doubt want to stretch your legs and feel some normalcy again, and our attractions will be there for you. Visit local and visit lots! Immerse yourself in the beauty that is Ontario; there are so many attractions across this great province, all of which are opening with safety guidelines in place to ensure your visit is enjoyable and protected. Now more than ever our attractions need you, and perhaps it is not far-fetched to assume you need them too; after being stuck inside for 3 months, exploring and moving around is a welcome thought. Together we can help each other and bring back Ontario businesses to their original health, aiding these beautiful, historical and altogether enjoyable attractions to bounce back so that they may continue to nourish this great province we call Ontario.

For an ongoing list of attractions that are open and/or an updated list of expected opening dates for those remaining attractions (plus information on how these attractions are adhering to COVID-19 safety guidelines), please visit attractionsontario.ca/nowopen

No matter how much you love your offspring, there’s only so many animatronic critters a parent can bear. Plan your next escape around activities everyone will love. Here are itineraries for every interest.

FOR SPORTS FANATICS
Toronto is home to Canada’s only NBA and MLB teams, the Raptors and the Blue Jays. So catch a game... or several! The Canadian Football League’s Argonauts hold the record for the most championship Grey Cup wins. (Arrive early to join their new in-stadium tailgate section.) The Toronto Football Club (TFC) boasts many Canadian championships. Or catch the Rock (National Lacrosse League) or Wolfpack (British Rugby Football League) for their fan friendliness.

Make a pilgrimage to the Hockey Hall of Fame (HHOF). Housed in a historic building not far from Scotiabank Arena’s home ice, the HHOF honours Canada’s official national winter sport. Take a selfie with the Stanley Cup. Try scoring against Carey Price or shut out Sidney Crosby.* Complete your visit with a 3-D hockey flick and a tour of planet Earth’s biggest collection of hockey memorabilia.

* Canadian coach.
Stay active with pick-up basketball at Dufferin Grove Park or drop-in swim at a public swimming pool. Planning a racecation? The Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon includes a stroller-friendly 5K.

*OK, OK: life-size, simulated versions of Carey Price and Sidney Crosby.

FOR CULTURE VULTURES
From the country’s leading galleries and museums (we’re looking at you, Royal Ontario Museum and Art Gallery of Ontario) to unique events and festivals, Toronto’s the place to get your arts ‘n’ culture fix.

The Museum of Contemporary Art-Toronto (MOCA) offers thought-provoking work in the up-and-coming Junction neighbourhood. Another draw in a unique environment is Field Trip.

The annual Canadian music and arts fest at Fort York National Historic Site and Garrison Common, a preserved military base and 1813 battle site. In between sets by the likes of Feist, Metric and Broken Social Scene, small fry can go nuts in the kids’ zone, complete with bouncy castles, crafts and intimate performances by festival performers.

Hit Young People’s Theatre for its dramas, musicals and adaptations of stage classics. Visiting in winter? The National Ballet of Canada’s The Nutcracker sells out, so book well in advance. Each performance is preceded with the much-loved Nutcracker Story Time.

FOR FOOD FIENDS
Bring your appetite and feast like it’s going out of style (don’t worry: it’s not). Hit St. Lawrence Market to nosh on Canadiana like peameal bacon sandwiches, smoked salmon on Montreal-style bagels, and gooey butter tarts.

Stroll funky Kensington Market for delish global fare: Salvadoran pupusas, Caribbean roti, Venezuelan arepas, and sooooo much more. Save room for dim sum: Chinatown is just around the corner!

Visiting in summer? The annual Canadian National Exhibition (aka The Ex) is a must. Besides a ride-and-game-filled midway, The Ex is known for OTT carnival fare like butter-milk fried chicken on a cinnamon bun, or cheese-stuffed deep-fried Doritos. Toast the city at family-friendly brewpubs Indie Alehouse (colouring books), Mill Street Beer Hall (kids’ menu, crayons) and Left Field Brewery (Wrigley, the brewery dog!). Or hit The Distillery Historic District to sight-see, shop for artisanal sake or vodka and watch SOMA Chocolatemaker chocolatiers create decadent treats.

FOR ADRENALINE CHASERS
Get your heart racing with experiences for every thrill seeker. Many attractions let you adjust the adrenaline to suit each family member (age restrictions may apply).

The CN Tower boasts eye-popping views, thanks to newly renovated window walls and a bigger glass floor. Daredevils can stroll outside the observation deck with EdgeWalk. Ripley’s Aquarium of Canada ratchets up the excitement for those not content to observe tiger sharks, moray eels and sawfish; how about snorkeling with stingrays or scuba diving with sharks instead? Over at the Toronto Zoo, young naturalists will be enthralled by polar bears, Siberian tigers and one-horned rhinos. Wanna kick it up a notch? Try the Gorilla Climb Ropes Course or TundraAir zip line. And if the secret passages and underground tunnels of Casa Loma aren’t enough, visitors can partake in immersive escape room experiences within the castle.

Want more action? Canada’s Wonderland’s new roller coaster, the Yukon Striker, is the world’s fastest, tallest and longest dive coaster, hitting top speeds of 130 km/h (80 mph), with a 90-degree 75 m (245 ft) drop and over 1,105 m (3,625 ft) of track. Treetop Trekking offers ropes courses for all skill levels. Avid fliers can try uFly Simulator’s cockpit experience.

Or float on air at iFLY Indoor Skydiving. Finally, Go-Karts at Poison Pier promises timeless, wind-in-your-hair fun.

BY KATHERINE RYALEN

Our dynamic region surrounds the Greater Toronto Area, and is as diverse as it is expansive. The following are just a few of our many wonderful and exciting attractions to explore. Where applicable, we encourage you to visit our attractions’ websites for specific information on the availability of features and the safety measures which have been implemented to keep guests healthy and happy.

CANADA’S WONDERLAND

Make memories at Ontario’s top amusement park: Canada’s Wonderland. Here you will find the most thrilling collection of rides and roller coasters in North America. The park’s most recent coaster, Yukon Striker, has set records for being the fastest, longest and tallest dive coaster in the world! With other famous coasters like Leviathan, Behemoth, The Bat, Vortex and The Mighty Canadian Minebuster, there is no shortage of excitement. If family friendly fun is what you’re after, Wonderland offers two kids’ areas: Planet Snoopy and KidZville.

The peak season for Canada’s Wonderland is without a doubt during the summer months. But there is still lots of fun to be had year-round. Wonderland staff have developed special ticketed programming to keep the thrills alive. Beginning at the end of September, Wonderland’s annual Halloween Haunt is a favourite destination for spook-seekers. This event is an immersive experience in which hundreds of monsters take over the park. Enjoy a fully-decorated, Halloween-themed park, haunted attractions, live shows, and nighttime rides and coasters. If you think Leviathan is frightening during the daytime, you’re in for an extra thrill riding this supercoaster at night. For younger visitors, and for guests who prefer their Halloween festivities on the tamer side, Camp Spooky begins at the end of September on weekends. Enjoy scare-free fun and activities for the little ones and families, with daytime fun, live entertainment, dance parties and even costume parties.

Beginning the end of November and running through to the end of December, Canada’s Wonderland brings holiday traditions to life with its annual WinterFest. Gaze in wonder at the park you know and love as it is transformed into a magical winterscape. WinterFest features millions of lights, live performances, themed areas, and skating on Snowflake Lake at the base of Wonder Mountain. Your Gold Season’s Pass to the park includes admission to Halloween Haunt and WinterFest. Visit the park website for more information.

LEGOLAND DISCOVERY CENTRE TORONTO

LEGO—it’s not just for kids. Though it is specifically designed for children 3 to 10 years of age, it offers fun and adventure for the whole family. The LEGOLAND Discovery Centre Toronto, inside Vaughan Mills, is the ultimate indoor LEGO playground. Tons of fun awaits inside, along with more than two million LEGO bricks.

Take the LEGO factory tour to learn how these imagination-inspiring little bricks are made. Put your ninja skills to the test in the LEGO Ninjago City Adventure. Build race cars and race them against your family and friends. With two rides, ten LEGO Build & Play zones, a 4D cinema, and so much more, your kids (whether in age or at heart) have an endless bounty of adventure to explore. While you are there, don’t forget to admire Toronto MINILAND, a miniature replica of Toronto’s cityscape.

Did you know that LEGOLAND Discovery Centre Toronto holds a Guinness World Record? That’s right, we have the world’s largest LEGO flag right here in Vaughan. Made from 248,072 LEGO Bricks, this replica of the Canadian Flag is 21 by 11 feet, and is a true wonder to behold.

Because LEGOLAND Discovery Centres in Arizona and Kansas City have opened ahead of their Canadian counterparts, parent company Merlin Entertainments has been able to develop and operationalize its Bricktastic Safety Plan to maximize both fun and safety for its visitors.

JOYRIDE 150

If you have ever watched the neighbourhood kids Crankflip and 360 at the local skate park and wished you could do that, too… you’re in luck. Joyride 150 in Markham is Canada’s largest indoor bike facility. Open year-round to riders of all ages and skill levels, this park is ideal for those adventure-seekers wanting to try new things and build their familiarity with bike tricks. An attraction like Joyride 150 piques the interest of the kids. As any parent knows, children are fearless. But the park does see adults getting into the fun as well. It is a wide age demographic that flocks to this indoor facility—from 16 months all the way to 60 years. For the younger kids, balance bikes are available while they are learning, and there are even a few for the adults.

Professional stunt cyclists like Drew Bezanson, Brett Rheeder, Jaden Chipman and Brayden Barrett-Hay come to Joyride 150 to train. So, don’t be surprised if you see one of these awesome athletes on the track with you as you experience this aspect of extreme cycling.

McMICHAEL CANADIAN ART COLLECTION

In the heart of the historical town of Kleinburg lives the only art museum in Canada that is dedicated solely to Canadian art. With its impressive array of permanent and special exhibits, along with its outdoor walking trails, sculpture garden and historical landmarks, the McMichael Canadian Art Collection is an oasis of culture in a modern, chaotic world. This is not your stiff, stuffy art gallery of the big city. McMichael, which winds its way through some of the region’s most stunning woodland scenery, is warm and inviting, with natural architectural material like wood and stone featured.

At McMichael, the core pillar of the museum’s permanent collection consists of works by the famed Group of Seven. In fact, McMichael is considered the spiritual home of this iconic Canadian group of artists, with six of its seven members actually buried on the property. Also featured at the gallery is indigenous art of Canada, and Canadian contemporary art.

Take a break from appreciating the gallery’s beautiful artistic renderings in all their forms at McMichael’s café, which takes inspiration from local produce, seasonal harvests, and international flavours. The restaurant’s floor-to-ceiling windows overlook the forested Humber River Valley. Or, traverse kilometres of trails that wind their way through natural stands of maple, oak and pine along the Humber River. McMichael’s trails are perfect for hikers, naturalists, walkers and mountain bikers. Select trails are also wheelchair accessible.

CLEARWATER FARM

This is not your typical farm. Clearwater Farm, which is the flagship initiative of the Ontario Water Centre, is all about education. It aims to demonstrate through interaction the concept of living in harmony with the environment. In addition to producing wonderful, organic food, farming at Clearwater Farm follows regenerative agriculture methodologies which are mindful of the environment and are carried out in a way that supports the health of nearby Lake Simcoe.

The aim of Clearwater Farm is to help kids grow through agricultural education. Let your kids get their hands dirty gardening, and their boots muddy exploring the natural world around them. There is no prescriptive lesson plan on the farm. It’s all about trial and error. That is the way to get young minds excited about fresh food, fresh water, fresh air, and fresh ideas. Each year, Clearwater Farm hosts school trips, camps, and kids’ programs, in addition to welcoming regular visitors to its ecological sanctuary.

REPTILIA ZOO THE REPTILE KINGDOM

Get up-close and personal with the ultimate reptile experience at Reptilia. With locations in Vaughan and Whitby, you can enjoy hands-on and interactive shows and programming which feature over 250 reptiles, amphibians and arachnids. If snakes, spiders and lizards make your skin crawl, Reptilia invites you to see these creatures in a new light, with a focus on their role in the ecological landscape as well as the unique characteristics and even individual personalities of each species.

Are you as fascinated by crocodiles as we are? Reptilia is home to Canada’s largest croc – the Nile crocodile. These kingly beasts can grow up to 16 feet and can weigh up to 1,500 pounds! At the Vaughan location, Reptilia’s largest Nile crocodile, named Induna, measures 14 feet long and tips the scales at over 1,000 pounds. While you’re visiting Induna and his mate Nandi, don’t forget to check out Reptilia’s king cobras and 20-foot pythons who live nearby.

Did you know that approximately 75 percent of Reptilia’s residents were once unwanted pets? Many more were rescued from the illegal pet trade. These cold-blooded souls have become ambassadors to help the zoo educate the public about this unfortunate industry. Believe it or not, some are even adopted if they are suitable for pet ownership.

Let’s be honest: reptiles are a much-misunderstood group. That is why one of the main goals of Reptilia is to teach empathy. Come face-to-face with some of the coolest creatures around, and you will be sure to find a new cold-blooded passion for these wonderful, scaly beings. Your slithery reptile experience awaits at Reptilia.

BLACK CREEK PIONEER VILLAGE

Step back in time to the 1860s at Black Creek Pioneer Village, where you can experience Ontario’s history first-hand. Whether it’s watching the blacksmith work at his forge, visiting heritage farm animals, learning the role of the village doctor in a small community or discovering the industry of women in the home and on the farm, this authentically-recreated village will satisfy your historical curiosity.

The village is a living museum. You won’t find ancient artifacts preserved behind glass here. Instead, you can walk through true historical houses that have been lovingly restored and preserved. For example, many residents of Scarborough, Ontario remember The Half Way House Inn, a Georgian two-story structure built in the 1840s, where it was originally located on the corners of Kingston Rd. and Midland Ave., before it was moved to the village in the 1960s. Live animals are kept onsite, as they would have been centuries ago, and ten gardens grow flowers and plants for heirloom seeds.

Relive history with costumed educators who demonstrate trade and toil, and enjoy music of the era performed by musicians. In addition to regular admission, there are many engaging hands-on activities throughout the village. With its collection of 50,000 artifacts, interactive offerings and monthly events, visitors are welcomed to explore the past while considering how it has affected the present. After all, these are the lives of the people who have shaped what Toronto is today.

Black Creek Pioneer Village is a department of the Toronto and Region Conservation Authority.

St. Jacobs Village

As the model railway invokes a hint of nostalgia, so does a stroll through the charming village of St. Jacobs. It is like stepping back in time, seeming as though nothing much has changed since the town’s Old Order Mennonite settlers arrived here in the early 1800’s in Conestoga wagons from Pennsylvania. The jingle of horse tack and the clip-clop of hooves on pavement can still be heard. An open buggy comes into view, driven by a young lady in a long-sleeved dress, apron and bonnet. The Mennonite farmers pride themselves in maintaining their unique traditions and culture. The “Mennonite Story” at the Visitor Centre provides fascinating insight into their life. The many heritage buildings that line the main street are now upscale boutiques, craft shops and quilt galleries.

Butterflies Fly Free

“Think of the Cambridge Butterfly Conservatory as a tropical escape,” says conservatory board chair, Doug Wilson. With some 2,000 free-flying butterflies imported from Costa Rica and the Philippines, the inviting enclave is indeed an escape. With its cascading waterfalls, 150 species of plants, plenty of birds, bugs, turtles and fish, the conservatory is a nature lover’s dream. Don’t miss the honeybee observation hive – and if you visit during March Break, you will have the opportunity to put your taste buds to the test with samples of insect recipes.

All Fun & Games

Visit the Big Splash at Bingemans, and get wet and wild at the region’s largest waterpark. Afterwards join a game of beach volleyball, play mini-putt, venture into the 60 acre paintball area or head indoors to toss a few balls at Bingemans Kingpin Bowlounge. Kingpin is a family favourite, with 28 state-of-the-art lanes, high-tech computerized scoring and giant projection screens that add to the entertainment, or embarrassment, depending on the state of your game. Oh well, grab some nibbles and beer at the on-site Boston Pizza and just have fun. Aside from the upscale bowling, Bowlounge also features an extensive Playdium Game Centre.

Attractions Ontario

Attractions Ontario is a non-profit association that was formed out of a need to have a stronger and more united voice for attractions in the tourism sector. The association began in 1983 as an advocate for Ontario attractions, and in 1987 the first Passport Magazine & Coupon Book was published and distributed to the masses providing discounts to several Ontario attractions.

Over the years Attractions Ontario has developed and grown into the association it is today, representing over 550 tourism businesses and earning its title as the authority on Attractions & Trip Motivators in Ontario. We are the voice of the industry and the source for consumers to discover Ontario’s destination experiences. Our goal is to excite the public to engage in Ontario’s rich offering of Attraction & Tourism experiences through our website, which provides coupons, contests, events, surveys, itineraries, and so much more.

Did you know?

- Our team is made up of 5 incredible people who have been working together to promote Ontario attractions (for some) as long as fifteen years!
- Our office is in Toronto, but we are also represented by 18 board members that live and work at attractions across the province
- We hold four annual board meetings per year at Ontario attractions
- We are not a government agency
- We also produce the Are We There Yet Field Trip Planner which is an Educational Field Trip Guide for Teachers and Students
